

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Women in Fisheries Network-Fiji (WiFN-Fiji) is a local NGO committed to strengthen and empower women engaged in the fisheries sector in Fiji, and effectively disseminate information on sustainable fisheries methods and approaches. The WiFN-Fiji is currently hiring a Coordinator to lead and monitor the planning and implementation of the activities of the WiFN-Fiji in accordance with its objectives and values, oversee its engagement and work on gender and fisheries in Fiji, and build a strong membership base.

The following qualifications and experience are required for the position:

- Bachelor degree in natural resource management, social sciences, economics, gender, project management or a related field.
- Proven experience of successful management and leadership of a team, or unit of staff (at least at section leader level) in either the public sector, private sector, regional organization, or non-governmental organization.
- Demonstrated experience in managing or leading projects, developing concepts and strategies, preparing proposals, building donor relationships, oversight of financial reporting and acquittal of expenditure, and implementation of procedures for Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning.
- Good written and verbal skills in the English language

The following qualifications, skills, and experience would be an advantage:

- Qualifications and/or practical work experience in fisheries or aquaculture, or in women and gender issues.
- Masters degree in natural resource management, social sciences, economics, project management or a related field.
- Ability to communicate in Fijian
- Established professional network

The position is for one year with the possibility of extension. Please provide a cover letter and curriculum vitae with 3 references by email to milikasobey@gmail.com.

Closing date for applications is: Friday January 26th 2018.

Women and men are encouraged to apply.